

Our Task ~ A Common Mission

Matthew 28:16-20

There is a driving purpose behind our need for fellowship. That purpose is we have a common mission that we have been called to accomplish. That mission, to share Jesus, cannot be done apart from the fellowship we are meant to embrace.

Orders Received

Our mission orders come from the highest authority—Jesus declared that He had been given _____ in _____ heaven and earth

Our mission is simple—_____, as we go, as we travel about, wherever we go

We are to make disciples—bring others to the same _____ that you have

Tasks Assigned

Our first task—_____
_____
Our second task—_____
_____
Our third task—_____
_____

A Method

All we are asked to do is be a _____
All we are promised is a _____

A Closing Thought

An impossible mission:
• We do it
_____
• We are in this
_____
• Jesus promised us
_____

Fellowship is needed as we approach this mission. It is impossible for us, humanly speaking, to do what Jesus told us to do. The enemy that we face is too powerful and we are too weak. We cannot hope to do this apart from the power that Jesus has promised us. However, even that power comes through the fellowship, as we act together, the Holy Spirit gives to each of us what we need.

We never test the resources of God until we attempt the impossible.
