Why, God? ~ Born This Way Try Ministry—Then Theology A Closing Thought

John 9:1-7

Have you ever found yourself asking the question, “Why, God?” It can be in relation to many different things, in this case it is in relation to the things we deal with from birth. We have no choice in the things we deal with from our birth—but we do have a choice in how we deal with them.

What is our “job” in this thing called Christianity?

- Is it to win _____?
- Is it to _____?

Paul told the church at Ephesus to do the work of _____

A blind man sent to a place called sent...

So many wanted to know what happened—no theology, just _____

All of us are broken, in some way, from birth. No one escapes from the results of the fall of mankind—the results of sin. However, we are also a part of the marvelous display of God’s works. His redemption of fallen mankind is on display through the lives of those who have accepted His redemption.

Let’s not allow our “birth defects” to keep us from displaying God’s miraculous and marvelous works. Let’s allow the glory of God to shine through our lives so that others might see it!

Is It Sin?

Is it sin? _____

Does God allow the defects to happen—_____

Does God purposefully “punish” in this manner—_____

It’s About God!

That the works of God _____

Remember—We are _____

Remember—God’s primary focus isn’t _____!
