Filled for Thanksgiving

Ephesians 5:12-21

The most forgotten, and often neglected of our holidays has been Thanksgiving. As Christians, we should be known for being a thankful people. If I told you that being truly thankful took work on your part, would you be willing to put in the effort to be thankful—especially if you knew that it was God’s desire for you to be thankful?

A Command

Choose carefully—choose the Holy Spirit—not spirits!

- Be under _____
- Have your _____
- It will _____
- You can be _____

Choosing the Spirit

It takes work...

- Confess and _____
- Submit to the _____
- Dwell in _____
- Empty yourself of _____

Being Filled

A different way of life...

- We become a people of _____
- We become a people of _____
- We become a people of _____
- We become a _____

A Closing Thought

Thankfulness comes by being filled with the Holy Spirit

- The actual filling is _____
- It is not a _____

Our goal ought to be to live every day as a Spirit-filled disciple of Jesus Christ. It takes work to live like this—that’s why we are best described as disciples. That means we are a people that lives under the discipline (leadership or Lordship) of someone else. That “someone else” is supposed to be Jesus.

If we choose to live like this we can be the joyous, humble, passionate, self-controlled and thankful people that God desires us to be. The Holy Spirit will give us the power to live like this, if we seek to let Him fill us, every day!
