

We Need Peace

John 14:27

Peace. It is something that our world desperately needs. It is something that you and I are struggling to find, in most cases. Why can't we seem to find peace for our own lives? Perhaps, we're looking in the wrong place?

Peace—What it Isn't

Peace defined—_____

Peace—The Results

A different outlook on life...

- An _____

How do we get this kind of peace, is it hard to find?

A Conclusion

It is right here...

- Jesus _____ it to us
- Jesus _____ it to us

It is _____

Peace, true peace, isn't something you can have apart from Jesus. You and I are too flawed, too imperfect, to ever know peace apart from the influence of Jesus in our lives.

So, if we want to know true peace, we must come to know the Prince of Peace. Christmas is the time when we acknowledge that Jesus was born. It is the time we point to as a reference, to remind us that the Prince of Peace has already come to us—and has left us a gift, the gift of peace.

We cannot expect the world to believe that the Father sent the Son, that Jesus' claims are true, and that Christianity is true, unless the world sees some reality of oneness of true Christians.
