Keys to Growth—What We Think Ownership
Philippians 3:12-16

Who owns your spiritual growth? What I mean is this, who is responsible for your spiritual growth? Well, I believe the Bible tells me that I will only grow as I take some responsibility for it. Certainly, God must work in me for there to be any spiritual growth; but I must also take a part in this. One key to spiritual growth is that we are in control of how we think about our spiritual growth.

Consider

Do you think about your spiritual health?

- ◇ Think—

- ◇ Ponder—

- ◇ Reason—

Who owns your spiritual health?

We need to obtain something:

- ◇ Obtain—

Move

Nothing will happen unless you move...

Press on—keep pressing on

- ◇ _____

Straining forward—keep straining forward

- ◇ _____

Forgetting the past—keep forgetting the past

- ◇ _____

People are in a hurry to magnify themselves by imitating what is popular—and too lazy to think of anything better.

THOMAS MERTON

A Closing Thought

Our goal is a prize!

The prize we seek is:

- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____

Our prize—our goal—is to _____!

Growth, which comes from health, has a purpose. God has never intended us to be the same in eternity as we are in this life. There is a final transformation that we must undergo, but there is also a transformation we are meant to experience during this life. It begins when we ask Jesus to be our Lord and Savior. It only continues when we begin to think about growing!
