A Focused Life—Service

Matthew 20:20-28

When a church (by definition, the people of the church) focuses on the right things, one thing becomes evident—that church begins to focus on service. No church (no group of people or individuals) will truly lead a focused life until they come to see service as the natural response to our Lord, Jesus.

Jesus’ Example

We lead by example...

We must be willing to _____

We must think more _____

We must be _____

Service is not necessarily boring or even demeaning work. It is simply work that needs to be done, by somebody. We’re all familiar with the story about somebody:

This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody’s job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn’t do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have.

Our Desire

Service doesn’t come naturally...

A Final Thought

It doesn’t have to be complicated...

Jesus’ Response

Not our first choice...

Ideas for service:

The key is _____

• World’s model— _____

• Jesus’ model— _____

We must come to see that we are somebody. The works of service that need to be done, that ought to be done, and that can be done will have to be done by somebody.

The question is, will you become that somebody that will do what needs to be done?
