Am I a Thief?
Malachi 3:6-12

No one likes a thief. Likewise, I doubt that anyone appreciates being called a thief. It becomes especially troubling when the One calling you a thief is Almighty God. Are we thieves?

God Never Changes

He has always required obedience...

Since God never changes—our _____ about our offering is more important than _____

God always expects the _____

Being a Thief
Are we guilty of this...

God calls the people to return—this is only needed if you are _____

When we rob from God—we are _____

Bringing an Offering

We can't out-give the Giver...

Returning means paying what we owe—_____

God challenges us—_____

A Closing Thought
What does God need from us?

God needs _____
 from us

Our promise is _____ according to Ephesians 3:20-21

Tithing isn't about what you bring—it is about what attitude you bring it with. God has always expected us to bring the very best—the first fruits. Our question must be whether or not we are bringing the best.

If every Christian tithed, every congregation would be free from financial concerns and could truly be the salt of the earth.
