Leading By Following
Matthew 10:38, John 4:34

Father's Day is a day for honoring our fathers. It is also a day for men to reflect upon what role they will assume in their home, in their church and in their community. Men are called to be leaders in each of these areas—so how do we lead?

Why Become a Follower?
No one becomes a leader without first being a follower...

_____ followed
 Moses for forty years

_____ followed
 Elijah for ten years

_____ followed
 Jesus for three years

Jesus As a Follower
Jesus led by following His Father...

Following means being intentional in how we live. So, what _____?

What drove Jesus? It was simply this, His _____ was to do His Father's will.

Being a Great Follower
Being a follower means acting...

Following means _____

Following means _____

Following means _____

A Closing Thought
Don't live without intentionality in your life...

Being a great follower is a great

Rise, let us go from here.

We will never be the leaders we are called to be until such time as we determine to become intentional followers of Jesus Christ. As a result, our families will suffer, our church will suffer and our communities will suffer.

Our challenge is to become the follower of Jesus that our family needs, our church needs and our community needs. Only then will we be on track to become the leader that God has called us to be.
