The Need for Unity
Psalm 133:1-3

Unity is often spoken about as something that is desirable in any group of people. To have a common purpose and to work together, toward that purpose, is certainly an admirable goal. For Christians, unity is more than just an admirable goal, however; unity is what we are called to, by God.

A Call to Brotherhood

What does it mean to be part of a family?

- It requires a _____
- It includes a _____

This is part of what God has commanded-

A Call to Intimacy

Dwelling together means closeness...

- Literally-

- It requires us to

This is part of what God has commanded-

A Call to Unity

Unity means sharing a common purpose...

- Unity describes

- Unity is more about

This is part of what God has commanded-

A Closing Thought

We are told in this psalm to “behold”

- Good-

- Pleasant-

These are the blessings that God has commanded for us-

To know God’s blessings we must first do what he has called us to do. He has called us to be united. Unity has nothing to do with uniformity, we aren’t called to be cookie-cutter duplicates of one another. We are called to be unique persons working together toward a common purpose. When we begin living this way we can begin to experience God’s blessings upon our lives. However, as long as we fail to live the way God commands, we will never know the full extent of blessing that God intends for us to know.
