Holding On—Letting Go
Exodus 2:1-10, 23-25

Letting Go
We must let go—

Remember:
 • _____
 • _____

Being a parent in today’s world is an exceptional challenge. The things that parents have to deal with today weren’t even considered 25 years ago. So much has changed that it is tempting to never let go of our children. However, we need to take a lesson from a Mom about letting go. It can have a very dramatic outcome!

Jochebed

A Closing Thought
God knows—

Pharaoh’s daughter was a woman—

Hold on until

Jochebed did the best she could—

Let go

We must remember:
 • _____
 • _____

Holding On
We want to hold on—

Jochebed saw her son was a

It is very appropriate that we learn these lessons from a Mom. Too many times we don’t think about how crucial a Mom is in the our development. When God made woman, He made a unique creature. As strong as men like to think they are, it takes a Mom to teach us some of the most important lessons we will ever learn.

Pharaoh wanted

God’s Purposes
We may not see them—

Jochebed did what any mother would do—

Jochebed didn’t

I hope that you will honor all women on this day. However, let’s not just make one day to honor our sisters and mothers, wives and daughters. Let’s honor them every day!

We must remember:
 • _____
 • _____

Jochebed didn’t
