Setting Your Priorities
Philippians 1:12-30

If you've been paying attention lately, you know that we've been emphasizing the concept of spiritual growth. Spiritual growth is necessary for a church to be spiritually healthy. With any type of growth process, there are keys to that growth, and spiritual growth is no different. Today we look at the second of the Keys to Growth—Setting Your Priorities.

#1—Advance the Gospel

Everything we do ought to be gospel-oriented...

There is no wrong time to share the gospel:

- We ought to use _____
- We ought to be motivated _____
- We ought to be _____ whenever we can

#2—Live for Christ

What are you living for?

Really—who are you living for?

- No matter what—
_____
- Always seek a life that
_____
- Always look to
_____ for your reward

#3—Live Worthily

Don't waste this life on lesser things...

Remember the first priority!

- So—_____
- So—_____
- So—_____

Working for Christ has an unalterably true result: no matter what you invest, it repays handsomer dividends. Whatever you give him, he returns more; and his service rewards not only the achievement but the effort. When we give our best to Jesus, the Master responds in a pandemonium of generosity!

A Closing Thought

What brings you joy?

Philippians 1:18 (ESV)—What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that _____.

Spiritual growth is a matter of setting spiritual priorities in your life. Paul has written down three major priorities for any Christian to adopt if they wish to experience spiritual growth. The only question we have to answer is this, do we want to grow, spiritually?

If we do, then I suggest we adopt the spiritual priorities that will lead to spiritual growth—work to advance the gospel, live for Christ, and live worthily!
