Keys to Growth—Living Faith
Philippians 3:1-11

Be Aware

Dead faith can be deceiving...

A Closing Thought

Knowing Christ is the goal...

One problem that the church faces, and has always faced, is the danger that comes from confusing religion with a life of faith. A religious life can be easily mistaken for a life of faith, if we're not careful. We were never called to be religious—we were called to be faithful. Our faith must be a living faith if we desire to see spiritual growth!

Results in:

- * _____
- * _____
- * _____

Knowing Christ—_____

Living faith—_____

Be Alert

There are enemies:

- * _____—preying on the _____
- * _____—preying on _____
- * _____—preying on the _____

Be Faithful

A living faith looks different...

- * Jesus really is _____
- * Nothing else even _____
- * _____ is a huge part of this life

Growth only occurs when there is life present. Spiritual growth only occurs when our faith is a living faith. Our weakness is that it is easy to turn a living faith into a dead faith that is comprised of religion that has turned our faith into form. We go through the motions, we become comfortable with the way things are and the way we do them. Instead, we ought to be focused on the spiritual life of faith. A life that exercises a faith that is living, busy, active, and powerful. If your faith isn't like that—it's time for a check-up!

If Christ is risen, nothing else matters; and if Christ is not risen—nothing else matters.
