A Focused Life—Worship

Acts 2:46-47

How important is our corporate (together) worship time? Is it something that we can take or leave? Or does our “together” worship experience mean more than simply a box to check off? Well, it seemed to be important in the 1st century church...

Worship Daily

Not just a Sunday attitude...

Our attitude toward worship reflects our attitude toward God:

Attended—_____

Together—_____

Accompanied by two attitudes:

Glad—_____

Generous—_____

Worship Sincerely

It isn't an external show...

Our attitude toward worship is a matter of the heart:

Heart—_____

Act of praise—_____

Combined with fellowship—_____

It is not man-centered—_____

Worship Publicly

People should notice...

Our worship, together, ought to cause a stir:

Favor—_____

People—_____

A Final Thought

What happens when we worship?

How does the Lord respond?

While our worship needs to be God-centered, it is something that is also attractive to those who don't know Jesus. Our worship, when it is God-centered, is something that people apart from Christ can't explain. It is something that the Holy Spirit uses to draw them toward the Lord.

If we view our “together” worship in this light, how does that change the priority we put upon that worship? I think it ought to magnify our desire to worship alongside our church family. Such worship can be the cause of great reaping. When we miss out on our “together” worship, we may be hindering what the Holy Spirit desires to accomplish. So, my challenge to you is to evaluate where you place our “together” worship time on your priority list.
