A Praying Church

Colossians 1:9-14

I fear that many Christians feel a lack of worthiness and ability to do what Christ has called us to do. I know I feel that way. So, if we do feel this way, even if only occasionally, how do we combat it? Well, I believe one of the major weapons we are to employ against this is prayer.

Pray for Filling

You only fill what isn't full...

A need to be filled implies an emptiness:

Filled= _____

Knowledge= _____

Spiritual wisdom= _____

Understanding= _____

Pray for a Worthy Walk

How we walk reflects our relationship with Jesus...

We should desire to please the Lord:

Please fully= _____

We do this by:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Pray for Remembrance

Our walk is difficult—and we forget...

We may be unworthy—but our God has qualified us!

Qualified= _____

Delivered= _____

Transferred= _____

Redemption= _____

Forgiveness= _____

A Closing Thought

We must pray for one another...

Paul's example— _____

We miss so much because we do not pray. The busy nature of life is, I believe, meant to distract and confuse us. In that distraction and confusion we fail to use one of the most powerful weapons we have at our disposal—prayer.

The example that Paul gives in his letter to the church at Colosse should be taken seriously. We need to pray for one another. Imagine if we each took an hour during the day to pray for one another. An hour wouldn't go by in which someone wasn't praying for us. The enemy's attempts to distract and confuse would fail as we would be constantly reminded of our redemption and of our need to be active in our walk with the Lord. Imagine...if we prayed!
