Walk It Out
Hebrews 11:5-6

Faith has never been meant to be a “single-use only” characteristic for the people of God. Faith has always been something that was meant to be a daily experience with God. So, as we live our faith, let’s look at what it means to Walk It Out.

Enoch

Enoch=To _____
Adam, Seth, Enosh, Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared all shared the same experience—

Enoch—_____

The question is—_____?

The answer is faith—he walked with God.

His Walk

Walk=_____

Enoch exercised _____ on a _____

By his faith, he _____

Our Walk

Our life in Christ is often described by this word—_____

Properly, worthy, in love, in the light, in Christ, according to the Spirit, _____

It is the only way to _____

A Closing Thought

Living my faith means I must _____

What the world sees and hears from me must be consistently the same —24/7

Living my faith means I have to _____ Walking out our faith means living by faith every single day. It means living by faith in every circumstance. It means trusting the Lord in everything, for everything and with everything. Excess stress arises when we try to handle some things in our own power, without exercising trust (faith) in God.

So, walk it out—live by faith in the Lord who has already worked it out.
