Reality Check—Reality of God’s Judgment
Ezekiel 4-8

When we choose to live our lives separated from reality we will, by definition, live a life of insanity. When I determine to ignore reality and voluntarily make life choices that lead to trauma for myself or others I am living a life that is intentionally harmful. What you and I need is a reality check...

Reality of Idolatry
Idolatry is alive and well...

Israel was guilty:

- ◆ Idolatry—_____
- _____
- ◆ Speak to the hills—_____
- _____

What about us?

- ◆ “Church” more than _____
- _____
- ◆ World more than _____
- _____

Reality of Judgment
It is real—and terrible...

What happens when God judges?

- ◆ Courage _____
- ◆ Material wealth _____
- ◆ Social status _____
- ◆ No room _____

Reality of Hope
Some may escape...

Why a remnant?

- ◆ A remnant shows _____
- _____
- ◆ A remnant comes from _____
- _____
- ◆ A remnant allows for _____
- _____

Conclusion
Judged or freed...

God’s judgment is fair—_____

Judgment is not a popular topic. We all like to envision God as this kindly king, perhaps even as an indulgent king. We have confused His mercy and patience for indulgence. We have confused His love and grace for simple kindness. We have failed to recognize that alongside His grace, mercy, love and patience there is also wrath and justice. When we fail to see this side of God we tend to minimize the issue of sin and the consequences of that sin.

Our role in this is to understand the basis for God’s judgment and the reality of God’s judgment. While we may, as a part of the “faithful,” escape some aspects of His judgment, we cannot ignore the fact that God will judge. Our task is to be the watchman on the wall. To point people to the one hope—Jesus. Only by placing our faith in Jesus Christ and living for Him will we escape the judgment that is coming. The people we come into contact with need to hear this—even if it is unpopular!
