Reality Check—Reality of God’s Heart
Ezekiel 33:11

God’s Heart
What pleases God...

When we choose to live our lives separated from reality we will, by definition, live a life of insanity. When I determine to ignore reality and voluntarily make life choices that lead to trauma for myself or others I am living a life that is intentionally harmful. What you and I need is a reality check...

God states why He warns us:

- ◆ Pleasure—
_____
- ◆ His desire is our repentance—
_____
- ◆ His desire is simple—
_____

He is pleased with us when we approach Him with a humble heart—
 _____
 _____

God Speaks

God has always spoken...

He has spoken through Creation, and that ought to cause us to ask—
 _____
 _____

Conclusion
God is speaking...

God is speaking to _____

God’s heart is to have His people in His presence—
 _____
 _____

God Speaks—Part II

God gets specific...

God has warned His people!

Warn—_____

Warnings about approaching judgment are never fun to talk about. However, avoiding the unpleasant truth doesn’t mean the truth won’t come to pass. At some point God will execute His judgment upon humanity. To not warn us about an impending judgment would be cruel. Our God is not cruel; in fact, when we read the whole of Scripture we get a much clearer picture of who God is.

When I read that God takes pleasure in my approach to Him with reverence and a hope that is based upon His unfailing love, I am relieved! When I read that God’s desire is to shower me with salvation, I am impelled to search further and find out more about salvation.

By the time I get to the New Testament and see that salvation has been made possible through one Person, Jesus Christ, I am confronted by my need for Him, and Him alone. Above every other “need” I have, is my need for Jesus. It is through Jesus that I will draw close to God’s heart!
