Reality ~ Light or Darkness

1 John 1:5-10

Light is an interesting thing. We aren't completely sure what it is, or how it really works. We don't completely understand how we "see" anything. The complexity of sight is overwhelming. Then we have the paradox of "God is light" compared to the reality that God chooses to speak...

Have You Heard?

God isn't silent...

Hundreds of times God has said:

The paradox—

Have You Said?

Hard to listen when you're speaking...

What are you saying?

Fellowship—but _____

No sin—yet _____

Haven't sinned—but _____

Have You Confessed?

What we say and do...

Walk in the light—_____

Confess your sins—_____

Conclusion

We cannot let our guard down...

We can live in the light—_____

We have an advocate—_____

In studying the science behind sight and sound something amazing is revealed. We don't fully understand either one of these senses; yet of the two, we understand so much less about sight compared to sound. We don't fully understand what light is, let alone how we "see." At least with sound we have a solid grasp on what sound is, even if we struggle with the specifics of how we "hear." One thing is clear, God has spoken and it is our responsibility to hear Him. Will you listen?
