Don't Be Fooled ~ God's Wisdom
1 Corinthians 1:18-25

High school graduations are a wonderful time of accomplishment and celebration. However, as these young people move into more of an adult world they need to know the difference between wisdom and foolishness. Paul, in his letter to the church at Corinth gives us a glimpse into God's wisdom.

Wisdom of the World

Confusion is the result...

Some want signs and wonders:

- It never seems to be enough—

---

---

Some want wisdom (knowledge):

- Knowledge is the key—

---

---

The Folly of God

Better than our wisdom...

God chose to save those who believe:

- Our faith is informed faith—

---

---

What we believe matters:

- It determines how we live—

---

---

The Word of the Cross

It all hinges on the cross...

God's message to mankind:

- We are sinners—

---

- We face a debt—

---

- The Son of God died for us—

---

---

Salvation is obtained by your

---

Conclusion

A wager for eternity...

If you believe there is no God:

- If you are right—

---

- If you are wrong—

---

- Either way—

---

If you believe there is a God:

- If you are right—

---

- If you are wrong—

---

- Either way—

---

We are all faced with the challenge to live out our beliefs. Whatever you truly believe is how you will live your life. Determine your own core belief and then commit to living that out. My prayer is that you will place your faith in Jesus Christ, and live out that faith!
