Reality ~ From Faith to Victory

1 John 5:1-5

John’s letter is meant to inform a group of people about the reality of knowing Jesus as their Savior. Today, we get a chance to look at what it means to know that you have victory in this life over the things that hold us back. It isn’t impossible, but it does require us to go on a journey...

Result of Faith

It all begins with faith...

Relationships begin with faith:

- * Believe— _____
- * Jesus is the Christ— _____
- * Love for God the Father and His children— _____
- * Know— _____

Result of Love

Love brings obedience...

Obedience comes as a result of love—

Obedience is not _____

Obedience is not _____

Result of Obedience

Victory comes from obedience...

Overcome— _____

Key— _____

Conclusion

Faith is the key...

Hebrews 11:6 (ESV) ~ And without faith it is _____ to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

So many Christians struggle to have victory in their lives over some sin that they just can’t seem to shake. It hounds them, it makes them feel like failures, and it often causes them deep discouragement and feelings of being unworthy.

If you remember, we have seen that Jesus considered us worthy to die for. He died for every sin you and I would ever commit. We are worthy of Jesus’ greatest sacrifice. We are not meant to live a life of defeat and failure.

So, we have to focus on what we can do to become the victorious disciples that we are meant to become! It all starts with our faith. We must always remember that our faith isn’t in our self (trying to be good enough), our faith is in Jesus (more than good enough). In that faith, we have the experience of God’s love for us, and the power to love God. Out of that love springs a desire to obey God, and from that obedience comes our victory.
