We all set priorities in our lives. We do it all the time, and most of the time we do it without a lot of direct, conscious thought. We allow our jobs, our schedules, our friends and our families to dictate our priorities. This isn't the way we are supposed to do it!

God gives us a means of setting our priorities, it is found in Scripture. When Jesus was questioned about the greatest commandment He answered by quoting from Deuteronomy 6:4-6.

At the opening to this chapter, Moses proclaims something interesting, "Now this is the commandment..."

Did you see the definite article? This wasn't "a" commandment. This is "the" commandment. So, how do we set our priorities off of this one commandment?

Everything we say and do ought to be tied back to one thing, our love for God. This love is to be a decided love, a love that comes from the head as well as the heart. It is a love that says, "I will put the interests of another before my own."

So, that means that no matter what I want to do, no matter what priorities I might seek, my number one priority in life ought to be to fulfill God's priorities.

Some people work day and night so they can drive between jobs in a nicer car.

ANDY CAPP

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶ For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world. ¹⁷ And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.
