 Have you started planning for this year's Trunk or Treat? We will need as many families as possible to decorate their cars and give away candy. We also have volunteer opportunities for registration, S'mores, and church security. Please see Pastor Alan if you're willing to help!

Best Laid Plans ~ Responses

Jonah 1:4-16

Other's Response

Remember, our sin affects others...

Conclusion

There is always a response...

We humans like to make plans. Of course, our plans are often subject to change. We even have a cliché about this very thing from one of Robert Burns' poems, "...the best laid plans of mice and men often go awry." Of course, one of our biggest problems with our plans is that we fail to realize what the responses are to our plans.

The storm scared them:

- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____
- ◇ _____

God doesn't give up easily:

- ◇ Jonah knew the penalty—_____
- _____
- ◇ God wasn't done yet—_____
- _____

God's Response

God isn't ignoring you...

God always takes note of our disobedience:

- ◇ Remember—_____
- _____
- ◇ God will respond—_____
- _____
- ◇ The result—_____
- _____

Jonah's Response

How not to respond...

How does Jonah respond:

- ◇ Withdraw from everyone—_____
- _____
- ◇ Don't deal with the issue—_____
- _____
- ◇ Comfortable with his sin—_____
- _____

Our worst plan is to disobey God. The unintended consequences—the response—to our sin is too harsh. We can potentially endanger those around us. We certainly proclaim our attitude about what God has commanded. We tend to become the worst example of what a Christian isn't supposed to be.

Our response to God's command ought always be, "Yes, Lord!" Unless we like the thought of seeing the inside of a fish's stomach...

If one can be certain that his principles are right, he need not worry about the consequences.
