Best Laid Plans ~ Second Chance

Jonah 3:1-5

The Need

The people are still lost...

Conclusion

God uses broken people...

Almost everyone knows what it's like to fail at something. In a spiritual context, failure is known as sin. We are all guilty of this kind of failure, and we might think that failure in this context, sin, would mean that we would be disqualified from serving God. Well, nothing could be further from the truth, because our God happens to specialize in second chances!

- The need hasn't changed—_____
- The need hasn't changed—_____

We often reject failures—_____

God accepts failures—_____

Don't think God can't use you—_____

Jonah

Jonah has changed:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

If you need a second chance, that is what God specializes in. The message of the gospel, the message of Jesus, is that we have been offered a second chance. If we will simply admit that we've failed in our first attempt and call out to the Lord and seek the second chance that Jesus offers to us, we can have it!

The Task

God's tasks don't change...

- The task hasn't changed—_____
- The task hasn't changed—_____

When it comes to God you can't run out of second chances—only time.
