Give Thanks for Service

Ephesians 5:15-21

Being thankful is something that should be a natural characteristic of anyone who professes to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior. We are told to give thanks, always and for everything. How do we do this? It starts by paying attention to the right things.

Conclusion

The Lord's will...

Being thankful has to become a part of your thinking, every day, in every circumstance. It is especially needed when someone has served you in some way.

The very word, serve, comes from a Latin word that is probably best translated as slave. To serve is to do something for someone else, and it is even more meaningful when the person doing the service isn't getting compensated for what they do.

The only proper response to being served is to say, "Thank you!" It tells the person doing the serving that you have taken notice of them, that you recognize they are doing something for you, and that you appreciate their service!

The noblest thing a man can do is just humbly to receive, and then go amongst others and give.
