Renewal ~ Renew Your Attitude

Colossians 3:1-12

During January we looked at the need for change, and the prerequisites for change to occur. During February we're going to take a look at four things that must be renewed if we're going to be able to experience change. This week, we continue this thought with the need to renew our attitudes. No one likes to be told that they have a bad attitude, yet as Christians we can easily be guilty of this, if we don't renew our attitude!

The War We Must Fight

There is no truce...

There are two sides:

- ◆ Our old nature—_____
- _____
- ◆ Our new nature—_____
- _____

We must choose a side:

- ◆ Faith in Christ—_____
- _____
- ◆ Faith in Christ—_____
- _____

The Death We Must Face

Some things need to die...

Things of earth:

- ◆ Things centered in self—_____
- _____
- ◆ Responses centered in self—_____
- _____

Kill these things:

- ◆ A dead person isn't _____
- _____
- ◆ A dead person doesn't _____
- _____

Pick Up a New Life

Like putting on new clothes...

Centered in Jesus:

- ◆ Seek—_____
- ◆ Set your mind—_____
- ◆ Put to death—_____

The new self:

- ◆ Don't lie—_____
- ◆ Renew in knowledge—_____
- _____
- ◆ No personal distinctions—_____
- _____

Conclusion

If we'd only decide...

What would a disciple of Jesus be like?

I know I fall short of this, every day. I need to act decisively on this need for attitude renewal; focus on the things of Jesus and not myself. I know I need to work on desiring, every day, a renewal of my mind and my spirit, with a good cleansing of my heart thrown in. Until I decide to make this a priority, every day, I will continue to be self-centered. I will continue to seek my own desires and pleasure, instead of the things that Jesus desires.

What about you? Do you fail to act decisively in this area of your own spiritual growth?

Until we decide, we will never be disciples who make disciples...
