New Beginnings ~ Renewing Faith Reminder

Joshua 5:1-15

A powerful reminder...

Reaffirm

A boost to our faith...

Renewal

Where's your faith...

Renewal—covenants

The covenant that God had made with Israel had been broken when Israel disobeyed God by not entering the Promised Land 40 years earlier. They had been ridiculed, as had God, for their failure to take the Promised Land. It had become a reproach...

- An extreme test of faith—

- Rolling away the reproach—

Gilgal sounds a lot like the Hebrew word for roll. Gilgal will become a central location in the coming years for Israel. It was at Gilgal that Israel was renewed in her covenant relationship with the Lord.

Reminder—deliverance and promise

Israel had renewed their covenant with the Lord. Now, Israel needed a reminder of that relationship, and of how God had provided for them in the past and how He promised to provide for them in the future.

- Passover—

- Promise—

Science tells us that everything in creation wears down and deteriorates. Even our faith. We will always need a renewal, a refreshing, from time to time. Without it, even our faith can crumble...

Reaffirm—presence and power

Israel, and especially Joshua, was facing a huge test; the first real step into a new beginning as a nation. A battle that they would have to fight. A battle that was not going to be easy...

- Meeting our needs—

- Meeting our needs—

Conclusion

A battle is coming...

Now Jericho...

Real battle is about faith...every day
