An Arrogant Army

Who won the last battle?

Conclusion

Sin reaches deep...

When is the most likely time that you will experience a spiritual defeat? If Israel is any example to us, it is right after experiencing a great victory. Israel has just defeated Jericho, a great city with massive defenses. Now, they are facing Ai. A much smaller city, with no appreciable defenses. Seems like it should be an easy assignment.

A small city, combined with an arrogant army, and add in the sin of one man and you have a recipe for disaster.

A Small City

Never underestimate...

When are we susceptible to defeat?
After a victory—Ai was:

- _____
- _____
- _____

Where Israel went wrong—they forgot:

- _____
- _____
- _____

An attitude that leads to defeat—arrogance:

- _____
- _____
- God simply wasn't needed

Where Israel went wrong—they forgot:

- _____
- _____
- _____

One Man's Sin

Sin really is that bad...

The sin of one man—Achan (trouble):

- _____
- _____
- _____

Where Israel went wrong...

Wait a minute—

- _____
- _____
- _____

Why destroy the whole family—

Sin:

- _____
- _____
- _____

Because one man sinned his whole family was destroyed. Because one man sinned thirty-six innocent men lost their lives in the initial attack against Ai. Because one man sinned an entire nation was damaged and had to repent.

How much has sin damaged my family; your family? How much damage has sin done to our church over the years? How badly have our communities been damaged as a result of sin? How far has our own country been damaged as a result of sin?

All I can do is confess my own sins, seek God's forgiveness, and work to turn away from my sins in the future. Your sins will have to be dealt with by you, the sins of our church by us, and the sins of our communities and nation by our leaders. God help us...
