New Beginnings ~ Bigger Things

Joshua 10:1-5

Whenever we decide to make a new beginning on something it will be a challenge. We have seen this over the past few months as we have looked at the Book of Joshua. Israel has, more than once, been faced with challenges. Many of them her own making as she attempted to take the Promised Land without following God's path for them Thankfully, when we decide to return to God's path, He has bigger things in mind for us!

Bigger Problems

Problems often multiply...

Five major cities band together—

Gibeon calls for assistance—

Our lesson—

Bigger Battles

The battles become harder...

Five armies instead of one—

More at stake—

Our lesson—

Bigger Victories

God's path—God's glory

God's path begins with a promise—

God's path includes our prayers—

Our lesson—

Conclusion

Time to decide...

New beginnings are hard:

We must choose:

This is the final message in this series that we titled New Beginnings. For the rest of the Book of Joshua we read the accounts of Israel's overthrow of the Canaanite cities, and the allotments of land to each of the tribes. Israel has, at last, taken possession of the land that God had promised them.

God's path always involves His promises. Our prayers as we walk that path must also be focused on seeking to accomplish God's plan. When we combine those two things, God's promises and our prayers as we act in faith, the victories we may see are much bigger than we might have hoped for. Especially when those victories come from our own failures!
