Devotion

Acts 2:42-47

What is the one word that we ought to see attached to a description of our relationship with Jesus and with the community of believers that we share?

When the very first people came to faith in Jesus Christ, those who heard and responded to the sermon delivered by Peter, the word that was used is ‘devoted.’

Devotion

All about commitment...

Devotion—

Community

We should have this...

Devotion to:

- Apostles’ teaching—

- Fellowship—

- Breaking bread—

- Prayers—

Revolution

A contagious community...

All things in common:

- Possessions—

- Worship—

- Breaking bread—

Conclusion

How’s your devotion?

Self-assessment:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

I think it is wise to ask ourselves the question, “Am I devoted to Jesus Christ and to the community of believers that God has called me to be a part of?”

I also think it is wise to make sure our answers are compared to the things that the Scripture says are indicative of true devotion. In other words, we can’t afford to let our answers go unchallenged. I pray we’ll let the Bible challenge us in this area.
