Who Is Man?

Psalms 8: 1-9

One of the most basic questions in philosophy is, “Who am I?” It is a question that demands an answer, and how we answer that question reveals a great deal concerning our spiritual condition. So, let’s answer the question and see who man is.

What Is Man?

More than an animal...

We are the created:

- * A little lower than God—
- _____
- * _____
- * _____

We were meant to have dominion over Creation with God...

Conclusion

We can’t fix it...

David wrote about our creation—

David wrote about the heavens—

We can’t fix the problem—

We Aren’t God

We don’t compare...

God is the Creator—

Majestic—

The Problem

We fail to live up to it...

Meant to have dominion—

Instead of being satisfied with a “little lower”—

Thankfully, our Creator saw this. That’s why Jesus came to earth in human flesh. It is why He died on a cross for our sins. He fixed what only He could fix. Once we understand who we are, it is a simple thing to accept the fix.

Jesus really is the answer. He really is the One that you need in your life that can fix what is wrong in your life. We are meant for so much more, and Jesus is the One who can give it to you!

God never uses anyone greatly until He tests them deeply.
