Honor Her
Exodus 20:12

Seriously
It really matters...

An Example
From the cross...

Honor is an interesting word. It is used to describe how we value another person. As a verb, it is meant to describe how we treat someone. When we are commanded to honor someone, and that command comes from the Lord, we better make sure we understand how to live that out.

How serious is this?

Suffering a gruesome execution:

Don't strike—

See's to Mary's

Don't curse—

Sees to Mary's

Penalty—

No excuses,

Care for the _____ and _____ welfare

Conclusion

Honor isn't an option...

A Commandment

Not an option...

Honor—

It is an _____ and an _____.

More than words,

Honor her for all that her hands have done.
PROVERBS 31:31 (NIV)

Still living at home—

No longer at home—

Honor her,
