Freedom

Romans 8:20-21

245 years of freedom; that is what we are celebrating today. Our physical freedoms are something to be cherished, something to be kept and guarded. However, it is more than possible to ‘enjoy’ freedom like our country provides, and still be in bondage. We need true freedom...

Our World

In bondage—

Corruption—

Nothing is _____,

The Desire

Freedom—

• We wait eagerly—

• Eager longing—

• Groaning—

The Path

We need to align with the

We need to align with _____

The only path to freedom is _____

Conclusion

Which would you rather have:

- Physical freedom while

- True freedom that only comes

True freedom is spiritual, not just physical. To be physically free is not nearly enough. You and I can be physically free and still in bondage to sin.

This bondage will have a negative impact on everything we do and on every relationship we are a part of. The Bible is clear that our need is to be free, spiritually.

As we celebrate 245 years of freedom as a nation today, I want to encourage you to consider casting off the bondage of sin. Come to Jesus, let him set you free from the chains of sin, shame, and guilt. Make today your own Independence Day!
