Too Much Weight

Hebrews 12:1

One thing that seems to be an affliction with Christians is that we try to carry things that are too heavy for us; things that we are never meant to carry. When we do carry these things, it impacts our faith in a negative way, and that has a negative impact on our hope.

The Weight of Anxiety

Don't be anxious:

- * _____
- * _____
- * _____

Answer~ _____

The Weight of Habit

Walk— _____

We must replace _____ with _____

Answer~ _____

The Weight of Priorities

Humans— _____

Priorities— _____

Answer— _____

Conclusion

Lay aside— _____

- * _____
- * _____
- * _____

There are other things we must not pick up and try to carry beside these three things. Like guilt, if we are forgiven then we must set aside the guilt we carry with us from our sins. Shame is another, while we should never "glory" in our past sins we also must not allow the shame of our past to drag us down in the here and now.

Hope is necessary for life to be meaningful today. Hope is also a fragile commodity and must be properly cultivated. When we lay aside the weights we weren't meant to carry, hope stays alive.
