A Victor's Posture

Romans 8:31-39

We see it all the time, if we watch any sports. You can tell who has won and who has lost by the posture of the players.

The ones who have lost have their faces downcast, there is a sadness in their eyes.

The victors have their faces raised, eyes are full of joy and they walk with confidence!

What is our posture like?

Uncharged

If God is for us—

Who can bring a charge against us?

Charge—

It is God who _____

Uncondemned

Who is to _____? More than _____!

Condemn—

Jesus is our _____! _____

Unseparated

Who can _____? _____?

Separate—

Nothing is capable of _____

No _____

Conclusion

Conqueror—

Not a future event—

What is the _____?

We have everything we need to be victorious and to stand with the posture of the victor. We are not defeated!

We, of all people, ought to be standing with our faces raised, eyes full of joy, our hope not in a fairy tale but in our Savior and Lord, Jesus. He loves us beyond measure, and that love cannot be taken away from us by anything or anyone. Stand, as a victor, keep your hope alive in Jesus!
