Unorthodox Salvation

Acts 4:12

We end this series with a message that is the culmination of all the messages in this series. It is going to deal with the one thing we stand most in need of.

What Is Salvation?

Salvation—

◆ Implies

◆ Implies

We are sinners—worthy of being punished—

How Would We Do It?

Not the way God would...

◆ Quest—

◆ Religion—

◆ Self-punishment—

Salvation

Salvation is found only in Jesus

◆ Stepping out of heaven—

◆ Following the law—

◆ Punished for us—

Conclusion

Are you paying attention?

◆ Salvation offered freely—

◆ Salvation offered completely—

◆ Salvation that is unorthodox—

I think some of the issues we are facing as a church, maybe all of them, come down to one fact—we have become complacent with our salvation.

That complacency leads to a host of other problems. A lack of focus for evangelism, a loss of the willingness to serve, and a lack of true fellowship with others. All of which leads us to the condition we find Central in today.

We can't afford to neglect so great a salvation.
