Walk by the Spirit

Conclusion

After being issued their first uniforms, new recruits embark on a journey. It is a journey that is designed to mold them, to shape them into Soldiers and Sailors, Marines and Airmen.

We have a similar journey, one of faith, where the Spirit of the Lord seeks to mold us into people who reflect the image of Jesus to those around us. We first have to learn how to be in step—how to march.

Marching

Marching—

It teaches:

- ◆ _____
- ◆ _____
- ◆ _____

Walk—

A leader provides:

- ◆ _____
- ◆ _____

Spirit or Flesh

There is no fence—

We must choose:

- ◆ Flesh—
- _____
- ◆ Spirit—
- _____

The Spirit-filled walk demands...that we live in the Word of God as a fish lives in the sea.

A. W. TOZER

Keep in step—

Will we

Of our Commander, or will we _____?

If we are going to be truly effective as soldiers in the fighting force of our Lord, we must decide to walk by the Spirit, in step with Him and with all those brothers and sisters who also choose to walk in step with Him.

Over the next couple of months we're going to look at how we are supposed to stay in step, what our "formation" ought to look like, and how that will impact the community in which we live and serve. It's time to join in, to be On The March!
