On The March ~ Love

Galatians 5:22

Most people probably think that the first order given to a group when marching is, "Forward, march!" However, that is not the first command to be given! The first command is always one meant to draw the attention of the unit.

Love Defined

Some define love as—

Love is not just:

- ◆ _____
- ◆ _____

Love is a _____

Who to Love

Highest priority—

Another priority—

A third priority—

It goes without saying—

Conclusion

Do we _____?

If we do, _____

Love is the first marching order we have—

Love is not an option for a disciple of Jesus Christ. It is a firm commandment from our Lord, to love God, to love one another, to love our neighbors and those in need of the Gospel. Our love must not be empty words!

Love without action is void of truth. If we say we love God and one another, than we are obligated to show that love with concrete steps. To fail to act is to be exactly what the world thinks we are, the worst of hypocrites.

Our God has shown His love for us. He sent His Son to die on a cross for our sins, that we might be forgiven, and enter into a relationship with Him. His desire is for every human to know His love. His method is to send us, the disciples of Jesus, to tell the world of His love, and to show it to them whenever possible. On this march, the first command is to love!
