Thanksgiving 2023

1 Chronicles 16:8

Giving thanks is something that we read about in Scripture; however, did you know there are documented health benefits to expressing gratitude?

Chronic pain is often reduced when a patient keeps a gratitude journal. Better sleep is reported among those who do the same, journaling their gratitude journey. Fewer sick days and reduced symptoms of depression have all been reported among those who determine to express gratitude. So, what are we waiting for? We need to be thankful!
